Priestcraft and Bolshevism

WENTY YEARS AGO a real poet, with the vision of the Hun. of his kind, was impelled to write about a picture painted by a real painter; and this is what he wrote -a query and a challenge to the powers of earth:

Oh masters, lords and rulers in all lands, How will the future reckon with this man? How answer his brute questions in that hour When whirlwinds of rebellion shake the world? How will it be with kingdoms and with kings-With those who shaped him to the thing he is-When this dumb terror shall reply to God, After the silence of the centuries?

The answer is no longer a matter of speculation. It is appearing on the front pages of every daily newspaper. It has become a household word, for the predicted whirlwinds of rebellion are so shaking the old world as to threaten the new. The answer comes from Europe-Bolshevism.

Twenty days ago, in an Indiana village, a pin-headed priest, saturated with the superstition of his kind and echoing the imbecile cry of his profession, penned and chine-gun nests. printed the following:

Did you ever read a denunciation of Bolshevism in THE MENACE and kindred papers which claim to stand for true-blue Americanism? They in that great metropolis by a special committee of promiare not only in sympathy with, but a part of, radical Socialism.
